

Crawford Livestock Market

Market report for Friday, June 11th. We sold a total of 427 weigh up cows and bulls and just a small handful of yearling and fall calves, but not enough of those for a test. The weigh up cow market for the week was steady in most classes to stronger. The thinner more shelly cows were steady at $65-$78. Next cut of medium fleshed cows going on feed were $65-$76 and the really fleshy high yielding cows brought $70-$75.50. The main cut of bulls were $1-$3 higher at $94-$102. The main cut of heiferettes were $6 bucks better at $84-$85.50. Overall some nice cows came to town this week from Wyoming, South Dakota and our local area and the market reflected it.
