

Crawford Livestock Market

Market report for Friday, January 20th, 2023. We sold 4233 head on the day, with about 100 weighup cows & bulls and the balance being feeder cattle. A very light run on weighups this week with most cows going directly to slaughter as continued winter weather and extreme muddy conditions in feedyards across the state preventing any cows going to feed. The best cows going to kill brought $66.50-$75.50. Lower yielding cows were mostly $51-$68.50. Very thin, gimpy cows brought $37-$56.50 on a light test. The best of the big bulls this week were $84.50-$95.

We had a packed house for the feeder portion of the sale and the Greater Midwest Livestock Auctioneer Championship. We had 23 (30 were slated to come, but 7 had to opt out due to the weather) talented auctioneers from across the nation selling cattle throughout the day with Sixto Paiz from Portales New Mexico coming out as champion for the day. We had excellent buyer participation in house and tremendous on-line support all day.

The market was good in spite of severe winter weather conditions. We want to thank our consignors and buyers for their continued support and our crew for their hard work to produce a successful sale. We will be off this Friday, January 27th but will be back next Friday, February 3rd with weighups, feeders & bred stock.
