

Crawford Livestock Market

Hello, September!

Market report for Friday, September 22nd.

We had a light run of weighup cows and bulls and feed cattle packages. Selling about 170 head. Better end of the cow going on feed were steady with last week at $115-$124. Lower yielding cows going to slaughter were $90-$106. Young cows were $130-$155. High yielding bulls were $113-$132 and lower yielding bulls on a light test at $102-$116. Small sample of open heifers at $219-$234.

Horse Sale Market Report:

Despite a little rain in the morning, we're thrilled to share that the Legend Buttes Horse Sale was an incredible success today! 🌧️☀️ With 50 amazing animals offered, this event was one for the books!

Our stunning preview took place at the historic Fort Robinson State Park Arena, just west of Crawford. It was a day filled with impressive performances as our horses showcased their skills in various events, including team roping, ranch roping, reined cowhorse, and a trail course challenge. Special shoutout to our talented border collie dog, Lot 28, for working tirelessly with the cattle during the preview.

**Top Sellers:**

1 The top seller of the day was a well-trained 7-year-old AQHA gelding, offered by Tad Judge and ridden by Corby Chytka, which sold for an impressive $17,250. 🐎🏆

2 Our second-highest seller was a standout 5-year-old grade black gelding offered by Mitch Wilkinson, fetching a final bid of $17,000. 🌟
Our high sellers were presented with a custom bit from Cowboy custom leather and art and a custom Molly's Custom Silver buckle. 🏆
With a strong demand for roping and ranch geldings, it's no surprise that the top 10 horses averaged $12,750, and the top 20 horses averaged $10,500. From yearlings to ponies, we had something for everyone, resulting in an overall sale average of $7,680, with 84% of the horses finding their new homes today. Our special feature stock dog, lot 28, dropped the hammer $5,700!

Can't get enough of these incredible horses? Stay tuned for our full market report, available tomorrow on our website
