

Crawford Livestock Market

Market report for March 29, 2024. We had a total of 227 weighups and bulls. High steady market this week as we see a decline in the meat, but still a great market. The fleshier/higher yielding cows brought $131.00 - $141.00 which $2 to $3 higher than the previous week. The lower yielding cows were $120.00 - $137.00. The thin, rough cows were $105.00 - $120.00 which is slightly higher as well. The bull market stayed strong as we sold the high yielding bulls from $156.50 - $164.50. The next cut was $142.00 - $154.00.

We sold Federle Ranch Annual Production Sale again this year and had the opportunity to sell 50 heifers at $1876 a head. They also had 22 bulls that averaged $3666 a head. We appreciate the Federle family very much for putting their trust in us year after year in marketing their cattle.
