

Crawford Livestock Market

Market report for November 10th and November 11th, 2022. On Thursday we sold a total of 724 head of weighup cattle. The top end of the cows going on feed was softer at $76-$81.50, the next cut was $71-$75 which was also weaker from last week. The better cows going to slaughter were off a bit $54-$66. Thin, gimpy lower yielding cows topped out in the lows $50's. Another light test of big killer bulls was a bit better at $95-$108. Little cutting bulls were $109-$117.50, on an extremely limited test. A nice run on heiferettes was $90-$126. A pretty good run of pregged open heifers saw the top end brining $160-$168. On Friday, we sold 2400 head of calves in front of a nice crowd and very good buyer participation in the seats and strong support on-line. We had a very nice line up of calves on a short day with calves across the board being higher from last week. We want to thank you once again for being wonderful customers, buyers and crew!!
