Market Report – Friday, November 7, 2025

While the market remains in a bit of a free fall right now, prices are still strongly reflecting the quality of the cattle. Good, black-hided larger groups continue to sell well. Smaller packages with some color on the hide were a bit softer, but still bringing $150–$300 more per head than this time last year.

To give you an idea of today’s trade:
• 64 black steers, weighing 482 lbs with Spring Shots, brought $503/cwt, totaling $2,423.44 a head.
• 62 black steers, weighing 580 lbs with Pre-Conditioning shots, brought $457.50/cwt, totaling $2,653.87 a head.
And remember — we’re still talking about bawling calves right off the cow.

We want to once again thank our consignors, buyers, and our hard-working crew for another great Friday at Crawford Livestock Market.
