What another BIG week at Crawford Livestock Market!

Wednesday night brought us right around 2 inches of rain, and while that made our yard conditions a little less than ideal, there is NO WAY we are going to complain about moisture in our part of the world! We have prayed for rain for so long that a little mud is a pretty good problem to have.

Thursday brought a big run of weighups, and with so many calves arriving Wednesday and Thursday, pen space was getting a little tight! The weighup market continues to hold steady, with the majority of cows going back on feed rather than heading directly to slaughter.

And then came Friday!

Something I want to touch on this week is the amount of time and thought that goes into putting together our pen sheet. With so many consignors and thousands of head of cattle, Rich spends countless hours working on sale order, grouping cattle, and trying to make sure everything falls into place the best way possible.

One of the hardest parts of a big sale is knowing that we simply cannot sell every single consignor at what they feel is the perfect time. But I can promise you this, there is a whole lot more thought that goes into that sale order than most people realize. Rich works incredibly hard to put the right cattle together, build uniform loads, and make sure the cattle entrusted to us are positioned to bring the very best market we can get. It isn't always easy, and there isn't a perfect answer for everyone, but there is always a reason and a whole lot of effort behind those decisions.

Friday brought us close to 5,000 head of cattle!

The market told us something pretty clearly this week. Uniform loads of good-quality, properly preconditioned calves were selling right in line with last week's strong market. However, smaller packages of lesser-quality cattle and less desirable colors were $10 to $18 back.

That tells us something important. Buyers are looking for QUALITY, UNIFORMITY, LOAD LOTS, and PRECONDITIONING! Those things make a difference, especially when we get into these big fall calf runs. The extra work producers put into their cattle before sale day absolutely matters when the buyers start bidding.

Now, for the thank-yous, because we certainly have plenty of people to be thankful for this week!

First, our crew. WOW! We had almost forgotten what it was like to work in the mud, but they got a good reminder this week! From sorting and penning cattle to loading trucks, working the ring, and keeping things moving behind the scenes, these people worked their tails off. They are hardworking, dependable, and some of the very best people we could ask to have on our team. We appreciate every single one of you!

To our consignors, where in the world would we be without you?! We know some of you had a long day waiting for your cattle to sell. Believe me, we were right there alongside you! Big sales are both a blessing and a challenge. They bring the buyers, the competition, and the opportunity for top-dollar prices, but they also bring long days, tight pens, and sometimes not nearly enough time to visit with everyone like we wish we could. Please know that your business, your patience, and your trust in us never go unnoticed.

And to our buyers, THANK YOU! You continue to show up week after week, bid on these cattle, and help make Crawford Livestock Market a competitive place to market livestock. We know you have choices about where to buy cattle, and we appreciate you choosing Crawford.

At the end of the day, we are a family-owned, family-operated livestock market doing our very best for the people who put their trust in us. Some weeks are smooth sailing, some weeks are a little muddy, and some weeks we wonder how we are going to fit one more calf in the yards! 😊 But we wouldn't trade what we do or the people we get to do it with.

Thank you for another incredible week at Crawford Livestock Market. We truly are blessed!

~Rich & Alicia
