

Market report for Friday, April 8, 2022. We sold a total of 252 head of cattle consisting of mostly weighup cows and bulls. The weighup market was still good this week but a bit softer compared to the last couple of weeks. The top end of the cows going on feed were $75-$88.50. The better end of the slaughter cows were $70.50-$82.50 and the next cut a bit lighter managed $66.50-$79.50. Lower yielding cows were $53-$69.50. We had a nice run of bulls this week with the big top end of killer bulls ranging from $107-$114.50, and the next cut still performed well at $91-$104.50. A nice offering of heiferettes were $81-$94, with the top end going up to $110.

We will be back next week selling weighups at 10AM and at 1PM we will be featuring Sellman Ranch Annual Production sale, they'll have another outstanding offering of bulls here mid-week for your appraisal. Give Butch 430-4223 or Adam 430-3742 a call or call the office at 308-665-2220 if you need anything! Thank you as always for being wonderful customers!
