

Crawford Livestock Market

We sold 526 head this Friday, with 391 weigh up cows and the balance were breeding bulls in the offering.

Our weighup market was a bit higher, back on course with a couple of weeks ago. The top end of the good feeding cows brought $77-$88.50. The high end of the killer cows were stronger ranging from $69-$87 and the next cut was $70-$80. Lower yielding cows were $50-$63. A good run on bulls this week were $95-$108.50 on the smaller end with the bigger high yielding bulls right in line at $103-$106. A nice run of heiferettes were $90-$97 with a few on the top end going to $119.

We had a full house for Sellman Ranch's annual production sale and several bulls also being sold online. On 137 bulls we averaged $4,300 for the day. The top bull commanded $10,000 and the next high seller wasn't far behind at $9,250, with a couple more high sellers behind that at $8,000. We want to thank the Sellman family for their continued business and friendship.

We will be back at work next week with 2,000 + feeders in the offering and we will have Red Western Red Angus Bull Sale.
