

Crawford Livestock Market

Market report for Thursday, November 3rd & Friday, November 4th. On Thursday, we sold a total of 823 head of weighup cattle. Top end of the better cows going on feed was steady at $82-$94. The next cut of feeding cows was right in line with last week at $74-$81. Better slaughter cows were $54-$69. Low yielding cows going to slaughter were mostly $51-$59. A very limited run on big bulls this week but they were $92-$99.50. Another big run of heiferettes saw some very good demand and sold in a range of $91-$139.

On Friday, we sold 4,626 on the day in front of a full house with strong buyer participation from start to finish and steady internet support all day. We had another fancy run of calves with a steady market compared to last week with lighter heifers being stronger.
