

Crawford Livestock Market

Market report for Thursday, December 1 & Friday, December 2, 2022. On Thursday, we had another nice run of weighup cattle selling 587 head. Overall the cow market was still good but had a softer undertone. The bulk of the cows this week are going on feed. The best feeding cows brought $74-$80.50 and the next cut $67-$74. The better slaughter cows were steady to a tick higher at $54-$68. Flawed, gimpy cows still managed to reach the lower $50's. A very light run on slaughter bulls saw the big ones bring $90-$101. A pretty nice run on heiferettes were $92-$121 & pregged open heifers topped out at $159.50.

We are getting to the end of the year and had our last special calf sale and it was strong from start to finish with both weaned and unweaned calves. We had a house full of people buying and watching and active internet buying all the way until the end. We also auctioned off some beautiful custom spurs for the Quilts of Valor organization who provide our local veterans with a quilt for their service and those ladies gave away three quilts in a nice ceremony. Then at noon Joey Morava donated a nice steer for a roll over auction for one of local wonderful gals, Syd Meidell who was in a car wreck a few weeks ago. We had tremendous success with that! Scott & Caitlin Schaefer are donating a bred heifer for the same cause next week and we'll be selling her at noon as well.

Lastly, thank you for all the calls, cards and questions about Jack. How lucky are we to have some many wonderful people in our lives? He is home, but really still isn't well, so keep him and Laurel in your thoughts and prayers. We appreciate you all! Rich & Alicia
