Market report for Friday, April 1, 2022. We sold a total of 255 head on the day consisting of 218 head of mostly weighup cows and bulls with a few packages of late bred cows and pairs as well. The weighup market was strong again this week. The best end of the cows going on feed were steady bringing $81.50-$89.50. The top end of the cows going to slaughter were up a couple of dollars at $73.50-$88.50. The next cut of killer cows were $75-$85.50 and on a very limited offering, thin, low yielding cows were $42.50-$65. Not a lot of big bulls to town this week, however a big slaughter bull weighing 2,335# brought $120.50. A nice offering on heiferettes ranged from $85.50 to $111.000

We had a really nice turnout for the Oetken and Norman Angus annual production bull sale. Selling bulls in house and online. Oetken's 25 head of high quality bulls averaged $6,170 with the top bull commanding $12,000! Norman Angus offered 12 stout built bulls averaging $4,250 with a great bull leading the way at $6,000!

We will be back next Friday with a regular cattle sale and will be excepting all classes of cattle. We want to thank all of our customers who support us and turned out for this sale this week! Have a wonderful week!
