

Crawford Livestock Market

Market report for Friday, for May 6, 2022. We sold a total of 1,861 head consisting of 352 head of weighup cattle with the balance being feeder cattle. The top end of the good feeding cows was up a bit this week at $73-$85.50. The slaughter cow market was steady to a bit softer with the better kill cows bringing $70-$78.50, and the next cut down a hair at $62-$72 and some lower yielding cows were in a wide range from $50-$71. We had another good run of bulls and the top end was stronger at $104.50-$115.50. A fairly limited offering of heiferettes sold between $91-$117.

We had a very nice offering of feeder cattle for early May, selling some cattle that typically wouldn't be marketed this time of year, however dry conditions have forced these cattle to town.

Thank you again to our customers, our buyers and our crew, we are blessed with the best.
