

The market report for Friday, March 1 at Crawford Livestock. We sold 2,236 head of cattle on the day, including 425 weighup cattle and just over 1,700 feeders and also some nice packages of bred cows & heifers. The weighup market was steady to stronger from last report. Good feeding cows were $116-$123. Top end of slaughter cows were $106-$124.50. Lower yielding cows were $96-$105. Flawed cows brought $87-$101.50. Big slaughter bulls were $121.50-$134, much higher this week! Young cows were $121-$134. Top end of heiferettes were $168-$189.50.

We had great attendance for the feeder sale. Our in house buyers came ready to do business and our internet buyers were active throughout the day buying several loads of cattle. A stellar offering of cattle combined with pretty tight supplies continues to fuel the higher market. A small offering of good bred cows sold very well with a lot of local buyers seizing the opportunity to add to their numbers.

We want to thank our local producers, our dedicated buyers and our yard crew for another successful sale and look forward to our next sale on March 15th!
