

Crawford Livestock Market

Happy
New Year

Market report for Thursday, January 5th and Friday, January 6th. On Thursday we sold a total of 369 head of weighup cattle. Most of the cows this week are going directly to slaughter. The kill cow market was higher to start the year. Top end of slaughter cows brought $65-$73. Lower yielding cows were $59-$65.50. Thin, shelly cows were $48-$58. Light run of bulls saw the big bulls bringing $92-$97 and not enough heiferettes to establish a market.

Despite the recent weather we sold 4250 head of quality steers and heifers and had quality consignments from start to finish. We had a house full of buyers and limited activity on the internet. Buyers stayed active until the end of the sale. We had 3 bigger strings of cattle sell in the top 25 results in the nation for the week. We truly appreciate the effort it took from our consignors to get their cattle to town. And also grateful to our crew that kept the day running smoothly. We will sell weighups and bred stock next Friday, January 13th and will start at 10AM and be on the bred stock after noon.
