Market report for Friday, June 3, 2022. We had another strong showing on weighup cattle this week, selling 450 head of cows, bulls and heiferettes, the balance of the day included 872 more head of pairs and feeder cattle. Overall the weigh cow market this week was stronger. The best of the feeding cows were $2-$4 higher at $76-$86.50. The top end of the killer cows were also up $2-$4 at $71.50-$88.50. The next cut of slaughter cows were also higher at $72-$78. A thinner cow that might have a flaw was also better at $55-$67.50. And finally on a nice sample of big, fleshy large cows going to kill were $76-$85. Bulls kept up with the pace this week on a big run with the big ones over a ton bringing $101-$113.50, while the next tier weighing in the upper teens going as high as $118.

We had a nice attendance and tremendous on-line bidding for the pair and feeder portion of the day. Two year old pairs with very young calves at side topped out at $1775. The best of the solid mouth cows with calves brought $1510. Feeder cattle sold well on the day with 551# steers bringing up to $204.50 and 724# heifers topping out at $158. Our pastures are in good shape for the time being and the market reflected some strength but we need some timely rain to keep moving forward.

We will be back next week selling weigh up cattle followed by the 3rd annual Legend Buttes Catalog Horse Sale featuring 90 outstanding catalog horses. For an online catalog for the horse please visit our website-
