Market report for Friday, September 29, 2023. We sold a total of 609 head on the day with roughly 300 being weighup cows and bulls and the balance being yearlings and a few spring calves in the offering. Cows going back to the country were mostly $105-$114. Top cut of cows going to slaughter were $100-$105 and lower yielding cows with a flaw or two were $95-$101.

Top end of the slaughter cows were $103-$115, the next cut brought $100-$105 and lower yielding cows with flaws brought $95-$101. Young cows on a limited test were around $135 and heiferettes were $182-$198 again on a limited test. Big end of the bulls were $108-$124. Little cutting bulls were $145-$171.

The feeder portion of the sale was basically a clean up of the yearlings in the country, but highlighted by some fancy pregged open heifers weighing 1056# bringing $220. On a light test yearling heifers weighing 890# brought $232.50 and a package of spring steer calves fresh off the cow weighing 491# brought $326!

Next week we will have our weighup sales on THURSDAYS and conduct of kick off spring calf sale on Friday with a super lineup of 5,000 reputation calves from our loyal consignors.

Thank you all for trusting us to market your livestock, we appreciate you more than you know!
