

Crawford Livestock Market

Market report for Thursday, November 17th & Friday, November 18th. We sold 1208 head of weighup cattle on Thursday. The market was steady this week in spite of the saturation in the weighup market. The top feeding cows were $75-$81. The next cut of cows was $70-$75. Cows going to slaughter were off a tick at $54-50-$63.50. Thin, flawed cows were upper $40's to mid $50's. A light run of big slaughter bulls were $92-$102.50. A pretty nice run of heiferettes was $85-$108.

Then on Friday, we sold close to 2,600 head of bred stock at our first bred sale of the season. The sale ring was packed with buyers and sellers and we had tremendous online bidding across the country.

The bred cow market for short term cows wasn't strong. Typically the bred sales we will have many local buyers to purchase good older cows with a calf, but with the current dry conditions we didn't have that. We sent most of the cows out of state, going to Iowa, Illinois, Oklahoma, Minnesota, Eastern Nebraska and Northern South Dakota.

Thank you again for the business, we appreciate our customers, buyers and crew!
