

Crawford Livestock Market

Market report for Friday, September 8, 2023. A light run of weighup cattle with just under 200 head. We had a few fat cows that ranged from $123.00-$129.00. The feeding type cows were steady ranging from $112-$121.50. The next cut of canner cows brought anywhere from $82-$105.50. The high yielding bulls were $122-$129.50 with the lower end ranging $112-$119. We also had a decent test of cutting bulls bringing $152-$186.

There wasn't enough yearlings to have any tested prices this week. But there will be 4000+ head next week with some big strings of cattle. Thank you all and we hope to see you in the seats next week.
