Market report for Friday, April 14th 2023. We sold 497 head of weighup cattle. The markets are higher this week and the weigh cattle made a nice jump up from last week. Cows going on feed were up at $98.50-$108.50. Better slaughter cows were up with them bringing $93-$105.50. Next cut better also at $73-$89 Flawed cows were strong from $65-clear up to $79. Big, sound bulls were $117-$126.50. And we had a nice run of heiferettes that were $134-$144 with the top of the market at $152!

We had a PACKED house for Sellman Ranch's annual productions sale. They offered 143 quality bulls with the top bull commanding $17,500! We had many bidders in the seats and the internet was firing bids from all other the nation all sale long. Overall the bull sale average was $6,400, but the average on the top 30 was $8,500 a head! We want to once again thank the Sellman family for their continued business and friendship.

We will be back at it next week with 2,000+ quality feeders for our Special Back to Grass Feeder Sale & will also feature Red Western Red Angus bulls. Visit our website www.crawfordlivestock.com for the most up to date sale listings, sale information & contact information.
