

Crawford Livestock Market

Market report for Friday, April 29, 2022. We sold a total of 437 head for the day with 397 being weigh up cows and bulls and the balance being late bred cows and a nice package of pairs. The weighup market was reflective of large numbers of cows going to town both in our local area and surrounding auction markets. The good end of the cows going on feed were close to last week in a range of $72.50-$84.50. Slaughter cows suffered some this week down $3-$4 bringing $70-$82.50 and the next cut $5 lower at $65-$75. Middle cut of kill cows were $63-$70.50 and lower yielding cows managed to bring $52-$61.50. The better end of the bigger slaughter bulls were steady for the most part selling from $100-$112.50. A good run of heiferettes had mixed results with the first cut in the $76-$94 range and the top end outperforming last week a bit at $97-$115.

We had a few consignments of late bred cows as well as a few pair with young calves in the offering. The young bred cows were $1525-$1575 and the later calving middle aged cows went for between $1225-$1350 with a handful of 3 & 4 year old pairs that averaged $1725. Our internet activity was great as we had muddy conditions here from heavy rains that kept some buyers at home.

We will be back next Friday, May 6th, selling weighups in conjunction with a special feeder sale, we expect 1,500-2,000 head. Visit our website for the most up to date listings! Thank you as always for the business!
